price. Hence, we removed the 30 day stipulation. The rest of the language that is removed has been replaced by a more comprehensive language dealing with the filing of the lien. You will notice that the name and address of the person for whom such feed and feed ingredients were provided for shall be designated along with the amount due, the place where the livestock is located, a reasonable description of the livestock, and the last date upon which the feed has been delivered. Also we have included the central filing feature which specifically instructs the county clerk to transmit immediately to the Secretary of State the necessary information. This was done in order to give the banks and anyone else another place to check. So on General File we had a near perfect bill. The printed amendment makes it a perfect bill. Then on the bottom of the page you will notice that after some legal minds again scrutinized the bill, they wanted to make the bill more perfect and we have done that by adding three words "and have priority". So the bill was clean to begin with. Now it is clean enough that even Mr. Clean would be proud of it. I think it is squeaky clean. I move the adoption of the amendments.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Pappas.

SENATOR PAPPAS: Mr. Speaker, would Senator Chronister here yield to a couple of questions?

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Chronister.

SENATOR CHRONISTER: Yes.

SENATOR PAPPAS: Senator, on the back of the amendment, you have "upon receipt of the lien filed...et cetera, et cetera", then it goes down to that the county clerk will immediately send this...transmit this to the Secretary of State the following document information...

SENATOR CHRONISTER: I beg your pardon.

SENATOR PAPPAS: It says the county clerk shall immediately transmit to the Secretary of State the following document information, what happens if they don't do that?
